Significant cuts in county, state, and federal funds allocated to the Cornell Cooperative Extension Association in Steuben County are threatening the programs we provide to the public.

Please consider supporting Cooperative Extension in Steuben County. We are a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization and your tax-deductible contribution is more important than ever before.

Tax-deductible cash contributions ~

- You may choose regular payroll deductions through the United Way, or make a one-time contribution. No cash donation is too small. Major gifts are deeply appreciated and recognized appropriately.
- You will receive a letter from the Cooperative Extension Association acknowledging the receipt of your tax-deductible contribution.
- You may choose to make an unrestricted contribution or direct your gift to support a specific program area.

Residential or recreational real estate gifts ~

- Concerned about high taxes, liability, vandalism, and unauthorized use? Consider donating your residential or open/forested/agricultural land to the Steuben County Cornell Cooperative Extension.
- Many transfer options are available including trusts providing for donor lifetime use, and your major gift of real estate is tax-deductible.

Estate planning and bequests ~

- Please consider the merits of supporting your local Cooperative Extension programs as you plan the disposition of your estate. Cooperative Extension programs improve the quality of life for individuals, families, and communities and are a deserving beneficiary.

The Cornell Cooperative Extension educational system enables people to improve their lives and communities through partnerships that put experience and research knowledge to work.
